Welcome to the 21st Annual Milken Institute Global Conference

Our mission each year at the Milken Institute Global Conference is to bring together individuals with the knowledge and resources to effect real change and tackle the world's greatest challenges. That commitment to the power of ideas has helped set the event apart for more than two decades, and it's why attendees—who represent 60-plus nations—count on us for an actionable frame of reference in the areas that affect their businesses, communities and employees.

As in previous years, the 2018 Global Conference will cover many content tracks, including:

- Aging/Longevity
- Energy/Environment
- Equality
- Finance
- Government
- Human Capital/Jobs/Education
- Industry
- Media/Technology
- Medical Research/Public Health
- Nutrition/Food
- Philanthropy/Impact Investing
- Regions/Developing Markets

Our 700-plus panelists will address topics related to these tracks as we focus on the larger theme of “Navigating a World in Transition.” We’ve learned over the years that convening leaders from diverse industries, sectors and regions—individuals who would not otherwise interact—leads to new ideas and collaborative solutions.

Keep in mind that the Global Conference also offers unparalleled opportunities outside the public sessions to build relationships—whether by interacting with fellow participants in the corridors or joining some of the many private sessions, lunches or dinners happening throughout the opening weekend and week.

And while it's impossible to see it all in person—especially during periods where 14 panels are running simultaneously—we capture the entire event on video and post to the Milken Institute website and mobile app. You can also join the discussion on LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter at #MIGlobal.

The Global Conference is always the most stimulating and productive week of our year. It's the equivalent of a trip around the world to meet with leaders from a variety of sectors and industries. It's also fully customizable—no two Global Conference attendees have quite the same experience.

Thank you for joining us. We wish you a productive and stimulating experience.

CONFERENCE NOTES

Name Badge Identification

You are required to wear your Global Conference name badge at all times during the conference for admittance to meals and sessions. The conference badge is not transferable. There is a replacement fee for lost badges.

Session Seating

Seating for sessions is filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Sessions—especially in the Executive Center—tend to fill quickly and are monitored to ensure attendees have seats; there is no standing. Once a session is full, no one else will be admitted. This includes meal sessions. Pre-selection of a session does not guarantee entrance to that session. If a session is full, you may attend any other session where space is available.

Meal Seating

Tickets will be required for lunch sessions. Attendees who have completed the Global Conference session selection tool indicating they are coming to lunch will receive tickets.

Everyone who completed the online panel selection tool and included their lunch attendance will receive tickets at registration. Those tickets will indicate seating assignments in the International Ballroom or the simulcasts in the Beverly Hills Ballroom or Pavilion. Reserved seats in the International Ballroom are held until 15 minutes after the published meal time. Seats that are released will be filled from the General Admission line on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please return lunch tickets to the desk if you're not planning to attend the meal session.

Sessions and Slides Online

Recordings of individual sessions will be available for viewing online at www.milkeninstitute.org. Information on how to view recordings will be sent to all conference attendees. Slides created specifically for the event will also be available on the Institute's website after the conference concludes. These slides are available to conference registrants only.
